~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER
FOR THE RELEASE OF
PETITIONER'S MEDICAL RECORDS

Dept: The Honorable Martin J. Jenkins,
District Judge

Petitioner Barrie Taylor's medical records from the Santa Clara Department of Corrections, which have been the subject of the Court's March 9, 2007 'Order Regarding Medical Records' [Doc. 76] shall be released to counsel of record for the parties, Assistant United States Attorney Alexis Hunter for Respondent, and John T. Philipsborn for Petitioner, pursuant to this protective Order. Petitioner's released medical records shall be maintained in the files and records of the above-named counsel, and shall only be disseminated to persons working under counsel's supervision in the litigation of this case. 4 confidential documents. Otherwise, with the exception of lodging the records with this 5 Court, or with the Department of State, the parties, or their respective lawyers, shall not
6 disseminate, file, or lodge Petitioner's Santa Clara Department of Corrections' medical
